

If you are carrying out the below activities this pass book may support the activity.
 'Coastal creatures' 'Seabirds on land and sea' 'Lets go on a shrew hunt!'

Pass book – have the group achieved the tasks set out in the seabird search – if so the prize is an ice cream at local dairy.

Task	Evidence?	Comment
	Jaclyn to place ink stamp here
2. I saw burrows where Manx shearwaters nest on the island of ..... Here is a sketch The places they nest in England are.....(Isles of Scilly and Lundy) .	Jaclyn to place ink stamp here
3. I learnt how to do a land bird survey of other birds by ..... The number of species we recorded is .....	Jaclyn to place ink stamp here
4. I learnt that the Isles of Scilly Seabird Project' is protecting these special seabirds by.....  (removing the main threat on land which is brown rats)	Jaclyn to place ink stamp here
5. I learnt what that another species which will benefit from the removal of rats is ..... .....(Scilly shrew) Here is a sketch of the evidence we have	Jaclyn to place ink stamp here

seen of shrews today (teeth marks in choc wax or footprints in ink tunnel)
6. I learnt about the island of Annet, why the island is special and the seabird surveys that are carried out their each year. Productivity monitoring of seabirds means.....(number of chicks fledged from a nest) I learnt that to monitor whether the nearby Manx shearwaters nest burrows near Troytown, St Agnes are occupied this year, scientists use .....  playback at burrow entrances	Jaclyn to place ink stamp here
7. What have you learnt most from today?
8. What have you enjoyed most today?
10. What will you now do to help your seabirds?
If you receive all stamps by 3pm at Troytown your prize will be a delicious ice cream to support our local diary!

